Request to Keep Minor's Information Confidential

CONFIDENTIAL

Clerk stamps date here when form is filed.

When do I use this form?

Complete this form if you want the court to keep information about a minor in a domestic violence restraining order proceeding confidential and not available to the public or the restrained person. If you only want to keep your home address confidential, you may use a mailing address on your other forms rather than using this form.

What if there is information I don't want the restrained person to have? You can make this request at item (8) if you want to ask the court to keep information confidential from the restrained person. If the court grants your request to keep certain information confidential from the restrained person, the information will have to be redacted (whited or blacked out) from all forms before the restrained person gets a copy. But be aware that if the court denies your request, the information may be provided to the restrained person.

Fill in court name and street address:

Superi	or Cou	rt of Cal	ifornia,	County	0

Request to Keep Minor's Information Confidential (Domestic Violence Prevention)

Case Number:

6 Reasons for Requ

To approve your request in (5), the court must expressly find all of the following:

- The minor's right to privacy overcomes the public's right to access the information;
- There is a substantial probability that the minor's interest will be prejudiced if the information is not kept confidential;
- The order to keep the information confidential is narrowly tailored; and
- No less restrictive means exist to protect the minor's privacy.

Use these four requirements to help you answer the questions below.

a.	Why should the information about the minor provided in item (5) be kept private or confidential from the public?
	☐ Check here if there is not enough space for your answer. Put your complete answer on an attached sheet of paper, and write "Attachment 6a" for a title.
b.	What do you think would happen if the information was NOT made private or confidential?
	☐ Check here if there is not enough space for your answer. Put your complete answer on an attached sheet of paper, and write "Attachment 6b" for a title.
